STRIKING PLAYERS RECEIVE SALARIES

Montgomery Team Franchise Sold to Manager of Street Railway Company.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., September 3.—W. H. Ragland to-night sold the Montgomery franchise of the Southern League to E. E. Winters, general manager of the Montgomery Street Railway Company, and the striking ball players were paid their salaries. League President Kavanaugh sanctioned the sale. The franchise was sold to E. E. Winters for a cash sum, said to be $5,000. This ends the base-ball trouble in Montgomery, as the new owner is connected with the street railway companies, on whose lines the games were played last year, and no further injunction proceedings will be had. Although salaries had been guaranteed by the league, the men refused to don their uniforms to-day, and the two games scheduled to be played were forfeited to Nashville by scores of 9 to 0.

TWIN CITY BALL GAMES

Great Contest Between the Leaders at Broad Street Park.

BROWNIES WERE DEFEATED

Barton Heights Making a Fine Run for the Championship.

Standing of the Clubs.

Clubs	Won	Lost	P.C.
Browns	14	8	.700
Barton Heights	10	9	.526
Manchester	6	12	.333

Games To-morrow.

10 A. M.—Richmond vs. Manchester. 2 P. M.—Barton Heights vs. Browns.

Games Next Saturday.

2:45 P. M.—Barton Heights vs. Richmond. 1:45 P. M.—Manchester vs. Browns.

The largest crowd of the season saw the Browns go by the board yesterday afternoon at Broad Street Park, with Barton Heights the victor by the score of 3 to 0. The latter team was considerably strengthened by the addition of Miles, Williams and Shelton. The victory was well earned and reflected no discredit on the Browns. The leaders were overconfident from the start, and it was through errors on the part of McEvoy and Anthony that two of the runs were made, and a dumb playing that gave the third score.

For six innings the game was a fast one, with double plays galore and heart disease escapes. The pitchers were on their metal, neither one giving or taking, and visions of Seybold, Hagerman, Elbert, Tammill and Chesbro floated over the park.

A large majority of the crowd of rooters, many of whom were ladies, wanted to see the Browns lose because they had seemed invincible. By losing, the standing of the two clubs now is so close that the loss of one more game by the Browns, with a corresponding victory for Barton Heights, will change the standing.

Early in the stage of the game Anthony peeled a finger. This put him at a disadvantage, and it was after that accident that he made his error, thereby helping to give the victory to the "hated rival."

Said 'Twas the Woggle Bug. The Browns rooters blamed it all on the woggle bug, while the Northsiders claim they won by superior work. There is no doubt that the Browns were outplayed. The leading club can't expect to win all the time. The suggestion that there was "jockeying" between the clubs is without foundation, as the leaders played all they were able to play. There will be two more games between these two teams before the league season closes. If Barton Heights takes one and the Browns the other, the latter will win the championship. But the Northsiders say they are going to win.

The three runs were made in the following way: Taylor went up in the seventh and singled. In trying to catch him off first Anthony let a ball go by, and Taylor landed on second. Then Boone singled, making two on bases with nobody out. Bache caught two strikes and landed on the ball for two bases, scoring Taylor. The Browns' infield was impregnable, and the one run was all they could get.

Three errors in the eighth gave Bache's men two more runs. Hogan safed on a fumble by John McEvoy and went to second on a bad throw. Shelton went out at first. That put Hogan on third, and Taylor's hit scored him. Taylor stole second and went to third on McEvoy's slow playing to head Bache, and scored on the attempt to catch Boone at second who safed on a fumble by Anthony.

This was all, but it was enough to win the game, as the following official score will show:
